**We require at least a two week reservation before the exact date you wish to be married.

Notes about Marriages in South Carolina

To get a South Carolina marriage License, you must be 18 or 16 with a guardian signing for you.

You must have a South Carolina marriage license to be married in South Carolina. No exceptions.

No Blood Tests are required.

You must have your passport or photo ID and social security card.

The fee is $45.00 cash only and there is a 24 business hour waiting period at the courthouse.

Special Note for Divorcees: South Carolina requires a copy of your divorce decree when you apply to pick up a new license. This is especially important to women that have legally changed back to their maiden name. Make sure you take this paperwork with you when you pick up the license.

You may fax your information to the Court House in Aiken only to begin the 24 hour waiting period, however, both parties must be there to sign for the license and produce the required ID.

Copy of the form to fill out for your Marriage License can be e-mailed to you. Let us know if you need one.
